

SHANNON KILLEEN '88

After high school, Shannon attended Rockhurst University in Kansas City where she earned bachelor's degrees in Political Science and Economics. Also, she studied Pre-Law and earned a degree in Paralegal Studies. While at Rockhurst, Shannon volunteered at the Jackson County courthouse and became a legal advocate for abused women and children. She continued volunteering for many years even after graduating from college.

While working in the legal field, Shannon continued her education and completed her Master's in Business Administration (MBA) from Webster University. Recently, Shannon received a certificate from Cornell University in Strategic Management with emphasis in Women in Leadership.

Shannon met her husband, Will, at Rockhurst and they recently celebrated their 25th wedding anniversary together. Will and Shannon have two children: Caroline '16, a junior at The University of Arizona, and Grant '19, a senior at Duchesne. Will and Shannon support Catholic education and are grateful for the strong academic and spiritual education that their children have received at Duchesne High School.

Shannon is a Finance manager at The Boeing Company and has a longstanding commitment to serving others in the community. She is very active with volunteering in a variety of roles at The Academy of the Sacred Heart, The Salvation Army and the St. Louis Food Bank. At Boeing, Shannon has led leadership positions in many outreach events such as Toys for Tots, USO Thanksgiving Meals, STEAM Outreach Day and Employee Community Funds (ECF).

Also, Shannon has a history of dedication to Duchesne High School volunteering at a variety of different events. Shannon's most known contribution is her involvement with the Duchesne Expedition Dinner Auction. She has supported every aspect of the auction and recently, Will and Shannon chaired a very successful auction. Shannon's positive attitude, dedication and commitment to the school directly contributed to the success of the auction.

Shannon demonstrates passion in her work and volunteer contributions by taking on a leadership role or being an active participant of each event. Shannon has a true passion for serving others. She is a mentor to many and she generously provides time to others. She genuinely cares about people and building relationships. Her consistent contributions of time, talent and service have impacted so many through the years.
